The Southern Warrior Held in #1 000 for Examination.

Mrs. Torres Trusted Him with Her Rent and He Pocketed It.

Col. William C. Corrier was held in ,000 ball for examination by Justice scottion for a Southern gentleman and them out of a sum of money under Colonel in the Confederate Army, but pretext of giving them employment. ees Mrs. Dora Torres, of 54 West Twenty-eighth street, can be mollined, t does not appear just how the Colonel can be relieved of the very inconsiderate ice to which he has been sub-

Mrs. Torres recently moved into the Twenty-eighth street house and began king in boarders. Among her early strons was Col Corrier, and it was he that helped Mrs. Torres along in preparing her house to entertain the large hionable patronage he was sure he would receive.

priculars and proved of such good demeot whenever acted upon, that its. Torres soon grew to rely largely pon his masterful opinions. He is six feet tall and as straight as nickory tree. He has a hanusome, agged face, lighted with an eye that sams with sympathy and again flashes ith the fire of a naws, rie wears a gray hair in clustering curls, and a white mustache droops, when the ind is asleep, far down upon his broad test his white mustache droops, when the wind is asleep, far down upon his broad chest

That is the kind of a man that Mrs. Terres trusted iast Saturday with a sheek for $129.65 to go to her landlord and pay $125 rent.

The Colonel accepted the commission and returned in a little while with $14.65 and a receipt for $125, which appeared to be signed by Agent Goodale, who rents and a receipt for $125, which appeared to be signed by Agent Goodale, who rents to Mrs. Torres I is that not been for a sudden request from Agent Goodale for the remittance of $125, Mrs. Torres might not have discovered for some time that the money never reached the case.

Col. Corrier was gone from the house ever Sunday, but returned yesterday and submitted to Mrs. Torres a large whereby for $500 remitted through him, as she says, she might secure an extended lease of the proposty.

Mrs. Mary Edwards, an aged white woman, was seriously wounded while driving to this city yesterday. Brock was gatacked by Jas. The detective says that the Colone admitted that the 1125 had not reached the agent, but that he had borrowed it temporarily and would repay. Nevertheless the prosecution is kept up.

For some time since the war and until recently the Colonel has been living at Rutherford, N. J. There he has developed and had patented a heating appliance that renders the most satisfactory service at a great economy of fuel. He has been promoting this invention in the city of late.

YENNACO HAD A GUN.

Go on One Charge, but Must Answer to Another.

Frank Yennaco, a barber, twenty-four are old, of $13 First avenue, was held Market Police Court to-day for carrying a revolver without a permit. Posee, arrested him at Tenth atreet and second avenue, at 3 o'clock this morn-new complaint of Rudolph Reinhaltbols, of 515 East Eleventh street, who was haltess and in his shirt sleeves. The latter accused Yennaco of robbing him of $40, a gold watch and chain, his hat, coat and umbreila. He said that he received a drugged drink.

In court this morning Reinhaltbolz said that he was in doubt whether the defendant had roissed nim. Postceman Smith found a loaded ravolver on the prisoner and, on that charge, he was held. He was discharged on the charge of robbery.

SAVED FROM AN IRATE MOB.

Swindlers from Victims. There was a small riot in Heater street Hogan, in the Jefferson Market Police yesterday. About sixty-five Italians were anxious to mob two of their countrymen, whom they said had cheated But for the prompt arrival of the po-lice the two men would have fared bad-ly. They were placed under arrest and were escorted to the Elizabeth street station by their victims, who vowed to atation by their victims, who vowed to be revenged.

The men described themselves as Jo-seph Carmunilite, thirty four years old, of 118 Mulberry street, and Donato Marino, fifty years old, of 112 Mulberry street. Vito Passello, of 104 Mulberry street, who acted as spokesman, stated that the two men had obtained $1.46 from each man on the promise of giving him employment.
